FREESA

A popular heritage and an authentic Bahraini heritage, the prey takes the form of a horse. Childrens and young people wear them on the half–night of Ramadan, dancing with the heritage songs.

All you need is

Large carton box

Scissors

Pencil

Thermal gum

Wool

Colors

Colored cloth pieces

Artificial eyes

Colored ribbons

Steps

1. Cut the extra pieces from the carton, you will get 8 extra pieces
We will only need two pieces plus a carton.

2. Draw on both pieces a horse's head.

3. Cut the shape you drew.

4. Cut small pieces of equal length using wool, and with the help of adults put a little glue on the tip of one of the pieces and put the wool to make the horse's hair.

5. With the help of adults, place the glue on all parts of the piece, and paste the two pieces together. You can now color and decorate the horse, Then, put the artificial eyes with glue.

6. Place the colored strips inside the carton box.

7. Cut a small piece of the box in order to glue the head in it.

8. Decorate the finished shape with cloth, and start pasting the cloth from the bottom of the carton to the top.
